I am drafting this correspondence in order to thank the citizens of La Pine Rural Fire Protection District of their continued support of this organization. Your continued support allows La Pine Fire to continue providing critical emergency services and ground ambulance transportation to meet service needs and expectations of our constituents. We are proud to be a part of this community and to provide these services for you all. We look forward to meeting future needs and continue to support the health and welfare of our citizens through effective response and prevention.

Sincerely,

Erick Holsey
